Company: POLYSAASONLINE LLC, a Texas limited liability company (the “Company”)

Investor: Arthur Muir (the “Investor”)

Purchase Amount: $3,500

Reference is made to that certain Post-Money SAFE (Valuation Cap + Discount) between the Company and the Investor dated on or about the date hereof (the “SAFE”), and the related YC Pro Rata Side Letter of even date (the “Pro Rata Letter”). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings given in the SAFE.

1. Conversion Commitment. The Company hereby covenants and agrees that, prior to the initial closing of any Equity Financing, the Company shall convert from a Texas limited liability company into a corporation (the “Conversion”), and the resulting corporation (the “Successor”) shall assume and be bound by all of the terms of the SAFE and the Pro Rata Letter as if it were the original “Company” under those instruments. The Company shall take all actions reasonably necessary to effect the Conversion and the assumption.

2. Distributions Prior to Conversion. Prior to the Conversion, if the Company makes any distribution to its members, the Company shall pay the Investor an amount calculated in the same manner as the Dividend Amount under Section 5(c) of the SAFE, treating such distribution as a dividend on Common Stock.

3. Failure to Convert. If the Company closes an Equity Financing without having completed the Conversion, the Investor may elect, by written notice, to receive the Purchase Amount in cash in lieu of conversion.

4. LLC References. Until the Conversion, references in the SAFE to the Company’s corporate status, certificate of incorporation, bylaws and board of directors shall be read to refer to the Company’s corresponding limited liability company equivalents.

5. Binding Effect. This Side Letter is binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns, including the Successor after the Conversion. The SAFE and Pro Rata Letter shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, as modified by this Side Letter.
