06:28 AM: Michael: hmm won't let me paste probably too big I will try smallerchunks
06:28 AM: Michael: On 10th March, we received a message from your bank to say your payment failed a second time, so weve taken the amount from your USD. This means your account now has a negative balance.
06:29 AM: Michael: can you find that transaction that shows they were paid.
06:30 AM: Cathleen: Alright, Major Oliver. Wise is saying the transaction was refused on 3/10/2026?
06:30 AM: Michael: yes
06:31 AM: Cathleen: Ok, and it was coming from your USAA checking account, correct, Major Oliver?
06:31 AM: Michael: yes

06:33 AM: Cathleen: Ok, perfect. I did find an ACH from Wise for $850 and one for $845. Let me me see what I can find out for that return of the $850 transaction Wise is talking about, Major Oliver.
06:34 AM: Michael: One was a ACH, and the other was a other debit card

06:39 AM: Michael: can I send you the screen shots I sent them
06:39 AM: Cathleen: Alright, Major Oliver, I appreciate your patience. I had to do some digging on this one for you.
06:39 AM: Cathleen: The Chat system won't accept a screenshot, I'm sorry, Major Oliver. However, I think I found the issue.
06:39 AM: Michael: ok
06:41 AM: Cathleen: Wise submitted two separate requests for $850. The one for 3/2/2026 did post to the account. However, the second one was returned due to insufficient funds.

06:41 AM: Cathleen: Let me pull the dates for both attempts, Major Oliver. One second, please.

06:42 AM: Michael: OK i made only one transaction on the 2nd for $850 I did not make a second one, they did

06:44 AM: Cathleen: So, the second attempt to draft the $850 was returned the first time on 3/6/2026, and the second attempt was made, and returned on 3/9/2026. However, the original payment of $850 did post to the account.

06:45 AM: Michael: OK can you send me a transcript so i can send to them?

06:46 AM: Cathleen: You'll have the transaction that posted to the account that you can print for proof. And, once the chat is disconnected, you'll receive a transcript of this chat that you can provide them the information on the returned draft.

06:46 AM: Michael: OK thanks

06:47 AM: Cathleen: You're welcome, Major Oliver. Aside from the Wise draft, did you have any other questions I can help with?
